

8. Appendix 3 – Primary school SRE curriculum scope and sequence links

The tables below record the findings of the audit of the links to curricula scope and sequence documents given by SRE providers by on their websites. They also record the steps required to locate the curriculum scope and sequences documents. The symbol ‘|’ refers to a ‘button’ on the same page and/or a drop-down selection box and ‘>’ signifies a ‘click’ and move to another screen. The greater the number of steps required reflects the difficulty for parents and caregivers to find the required information from the link provided on the school’s website.

Numerals in the far left column indicate the number of times the URL was identified in the audit. The column second from the left indicates whether the URL was ‘compliant’ (‘C’) or non-compliant (‘NC’)

9.7. SRE curricula for Central Schools

A central school contains both primary and secondary departments, and seeks to provide secondary education for children both from nearby primary schools as well as from its own primary section. Central schools have become characteristic of regional districts where the population is too small to support a single high school.
