Hi Darrin,

I apologise for the delay in responding to your enquiry – as I'm sure you can appreciate, it's a very busy me of year for our sales team.

Unfortunately, Think Faith operates on a licensing model calculated on number of classes and students, and is not available for 'private use'.

I have instead included a detailed curriculum which includes the aims and outcomes SRE teachers are bound to, and should sas fy your needs.

Kind regards,

Craig Roberts

Hello

In Mr Roberts' email dated 15 February 2018 he stated that all Youthworks curricula are available for purchase.

Please note that I submitted a request for a quote for the Think Faith materials over a week ago and I do not believe that I have received a quote based on that request.

Therefore, I would like to know the cost of a year's subscription to Think Faith for private use. I do not intend to use the materials to deliver special religious education or to instruct students of any kind but seek rather to gain an understanding of the contents of the curricula and the lesson materials used in NSW Government high schools.

With regards

Darrin Morgan
